

Knowledge Hub

User Guide

The Knowledge Hub is a comprehensive online resource center. It archives news articles, reports, website addresses, blogs and more, with a focus on modern slavery's links to the private sector.

When you first access the Knowledge Hub, you will be directed to this screen:

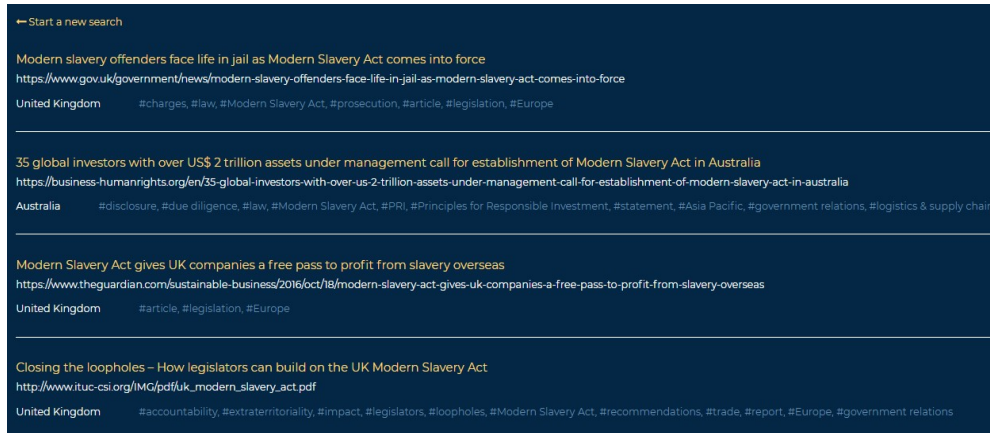

Keyword Search

To start a new search, you can type in keywords of interest and click 'Search'.

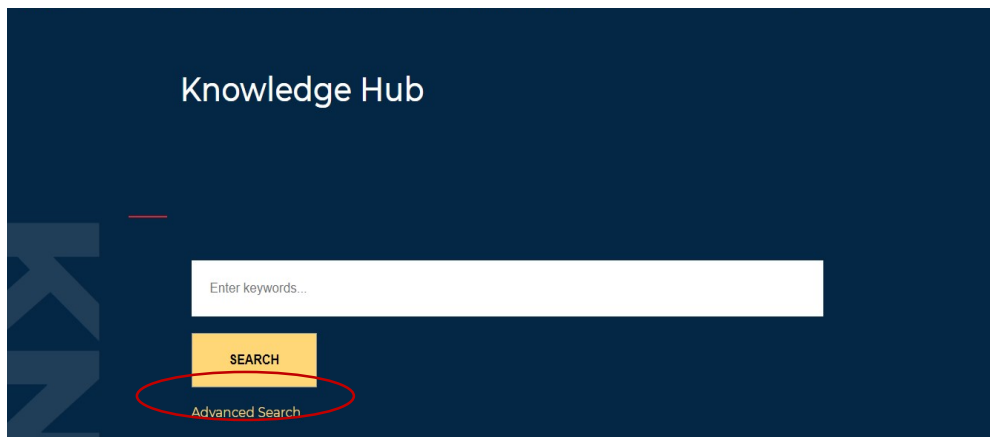

For example, a search such as ‘modern slavery act’ will produce the following result. Click on the title to be taken to the original information source.

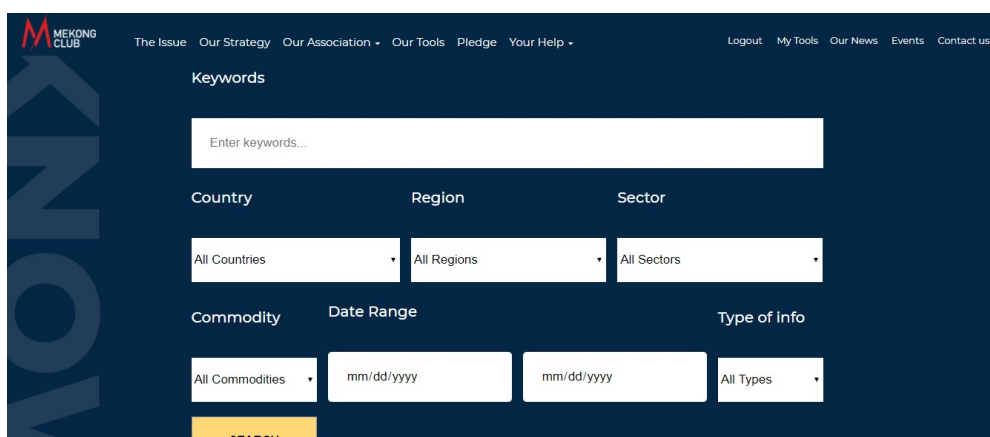

Advanced search

You can also use the ‘Advanced Search’ option.

You will be taken to the following page. Use the drop-down menus to refine your search criteria, such as by Country or Commodity, then add your own keywords and click ‘Search’.

For example, here we selected “India”, “Apparel and Footwear” and “Article”.

The screenshot shows a search interface with the following elements:

- Keywords: A text input field with the placeholder "Enter keywords...".
- Country: A dropdown menu with "India" selected.
- Region: A dropdown menu with "All Regions" selected.
- Sector: A dropdown menu with "apparel & footwear" selected.
- Commodity: A dropdown menu with "All Commodities" selected.
- Article Type: A dropdown menu with "All Types" selected, and a sub-menu open showing options: "All Types", "article" (highlighted), "blog", "case study", "interview", "legislation", "report", "statement", "video", "website".
- Date: A text input field with the placeholder "mm/dd/yyyy".
- SEARCH: A yellow button.

Once you click ‘Search’, the articles related to your search will be listed. Click on the title to be taken to the original information source.

Note on Hash-Tags

Since some searches produce a large number of results, each article has hash-tagged keywords to make selection easy. For example, two articles below deal with a similar subject, but the first one focuses on the Indian province of Gujarat, while the second one focuses on Tamil Nadu, and on the ‘Sumangali scheme’ practice.
